Description: Urology - York Teaching Hospital Report

Response

1. Please release the report written by clinicians from York Teaching Hospital NHS Foundation Trust, following their 2019 review of the urology service which took place to establish whether the Royal College of Surgeons' 2016 recommendations had been implemented.

The report you requested is published on our website as part of a pack of papers which went to our Trust Board meeting.

https://www.uhmb.nhs.uk/application/files/2715/8814/6236/Board_Addendum_29_April_2020.pdf

The report can be found from page 24 onwards.

2. Please release the external independent review commissioned by NHS England/Improvement into the Trust's urology service.

The external independent investigation was commissioned by NHS England/Improvement and is ongoing and not yet completed - we therefore do not hold this information. As this has been commissioned by NHS E/I, we suggest you approach them for a copy of the report once the investigation is completed.
